ON THE ROAD To The Title

ROUND SIXTEEN PREVIEW

Blacktown City v Canterbury-Marrickville

Blacktown will look to bounce back from their disappointing 1-1 draw at the Central Coast, and will also hope Jason Bennett can continue his good run of form. Canterbury Marrickville will hopefully have new striker Esala Masi on show (see Super Soccer shorts) but after their 3-1 victory over Fairfield last week the Fijian may struggle to get a starting spot!

Central Coast v Leichhardt Tigers

A couple of better performances from the Coasties means they will be looking forward to another home game and the possibility of picking up more points against the Tigers. Leichhardt however seem to be getting the results at the right time of the season, and their strike-force should prove too much for the Coasties here.

Macarthur Rams v Bonnyrigg White Eagles

Both teams on 31 points means this should be a cracker. Macarthur have picked up two wins out of two after losing at home to Leichhardt, and it will be interesting to see how their more structured game copes with Bonnyrigg's more natural attacking flair. Its a tough one to call this but I think if Macarthur's midfield can stop the ball getting to Gomez and Luff then the Rams can nick it.

Eastern Suburbs v Bankstown City

Eastern Suburbs are at the bottom of the table and desperate for points here, but will be without the suspended Mal Nicholls in defence. Bankstown continue to blow hot and cold, but Super Soccer thinks the Lions, playing 'away' but at Jensen Park as Eastern Suburbs are unable to use Wentworth Park, will get another three points.

Coach Roberto Viera was disappointed with his teams lack of commitment last week against Bankstown, so you can be sure there will be no repeat here. Ryde City v Sutherland Sharks

This is a game both teams will realise is a 'six-pointer', with both Ryde and Sutherland near the bottom of the table. Form suggests this will be a low-scoring affair with both teams struggling to score, however Ryde's performance last week suggests they can go on and collect all three points here. Sutherland will look to their young squad to lift after last weeks 4-1 defeat at Leichhardt.

There was an 'extra' match in Super League this week with the re-arranged tie between Eastern Suburbs and Macarthur Rams. SUPER SOCCER brings you that and all the Round 15 action!

Eastern Suburbs 1 Macarthur Rams 4

Greg Stock was at Seymour Shaw Park

Macarthur Rams snared a valuable three points in their rescheduled round nine clash with Eastern Suburbs at Seymour Shaw Park.

The football wasn't entertaining or pretty to watch in the first half as both sides defended stoutly. But when Easts were reduced to ten men just before half-time the game was effectively ended as an even contest. Defender Malcolm Nicholls earnt himself an early shower for a late challenge on the edge of the penalty box. From the resulting freekick the Rams classy defender Richard Lloyd stroked the ball past the wall and into the top left hand corner for an equaliser. From there the Rams were never troubled as they cruised through the second half with three further goals to account for the hapless Wanderers .

Coming off two straight losses to Blacktown and Leichhardt the Rams were vulnerable and the Wanderers sensed this as they started the first half at full speed. As early as ten minutes in, a long distance shot from Easts midfielder Peter Pullicino caused more than a little concern for Rams custodian John Crawley as the ball took a wicked bounce on the edge of the six yard box and cannoned into his right shoulder.

Easts resolve to breakdown the Rams defence was finally rewarded in the 39th minute. Mark Beldham mishit a cross from Pat Darvill on the right flank with the loose ball eluding the grasp of John Crawley. The rebound found Peter Pullicino just inside the area and he was quick to send it to the back of the net. A 1-0 scoreline was a fitting reward for Easts as they served it up to their more fancied opponents with a mixture of tough defence and constant midfield pressure. Their forays forward were good with strikers Steve Lawrence and Mark Beldham able to hold the ball up well and allow midfielders Imaya and Pullicino some space to build an attack. With skipper Tony Canning and Rudi Jerkovic on the injured list and import Vadim Mikoutski back in Russia, the side lacked a little depth but they more than made up for this with enthusiastic and committed pressure at the back which forced the usually productive Rams forwards to think a bit harder about their work. All their hardwork came to nothing when on the stroke of halftime Nicholls recieved his second yellow card and all of a sudden a 1-0 scoreline became 1-1 courtesy of Lloyd.

The second stanza was a complete contrast of the first. This time it was the Rams who would exert some pressure and with it came three goals. With midfielders Rastall and Bourke knuckling down to the task the Rams second goal took just under twenty minutes to arrive. Iain McDonald on the far right wing turned his cross in nicely to the unmarked Eric Williams at the near post and he slotted the ball home truely. The third was a low drive from distance by Adrian Macerola while the fourth was from a freekick which saw a McDonald shot placed beyond Anastasiadis. It was a comprehensive second half defeat in which Rams coach Casey DeBruin introduced classy striker Jimmy Aschner for the first time in 1999. After a long layoff with a broken leg the former Sharks striker showed he has lost none of his dash and touch with a solid performance sure to impress the Rams coach. The other Rams striker was Wollongong Wolves striker Michael Brooks who was making his Macarthur debut, and he did enough to suggest he'll be a handful for opposing defences in the run home to the finals.

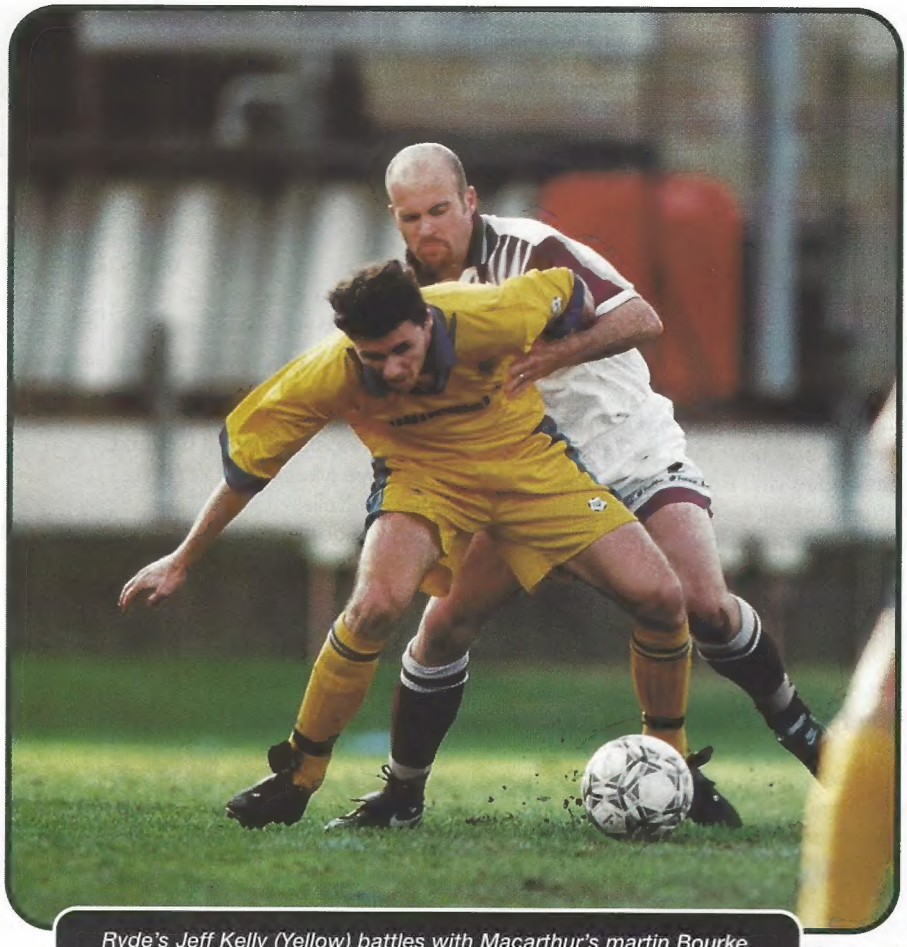
Casey DeBruin was not getting too carried away after the match explaining that most critics had expected them to win comfortably. He said the side was still a bit flat after their brusing encounter with Leichhardt the previous Saturday and this had taken the edge off their performance tonight. The addition of Michael Brooks and the return of Jimmy Aschner will strengthen the squad and should allieviate his concern for the troublesome forward spots. He expects these two players to make a strong contribution for the club in the next few weeks. In contrast Easts coach John Calleja thought his side had battled pretty hard and was happy the way the side stuck to the game plan throughout the match. They were punished with the send off and goal on the stroke of half time but they still remained positive in the second half which gave John a little heart. He also singled out Peter Pullicino for special mention for his non stop effort in midfield and Yavos Ekinci in defence.

It gets no easier for Easts with games against Bonnyrigg, Fairfield and Bankstown over the next few weeks but they still have a game in hand against fellow strugglers Ryde City. For Macarthur their May 15th clash against Bonnyrigg White Eagles at Lynwood Park looks to be a real cracker and could have a huge bearing on the aspirations of both clubs for the minor premiership.

Ryde City 0
Macarthur Rams 1

Mark Fowler was at Wentworth Park

The result everyone probably expected did come around - but in a way that will not leave Blacktown and Bonnyrigg feeling TOO threatened. Macarthur's workman-like performance against the Gunners may have JUST about deserved them the three points, although in truth there was little to suggest one team was near the bottom and one team near the top.



Ryde's Jeff Kelly (Yellow) battles with Macarthur's martin Bourke.

In fact, Ryde matched the Rams in every department, except just one.

Unfortunately, that one department was in attack, and is the one department Ryde have struggled in all season.

The only goal of the game came after 59 minutes, and was a tragedy for Ryde.

A free kick from the left hand side was put across by Macarthur, and a flat-footed defence could only watch as the ball deflected off Ryde's Chris Cowley for an own goal.

There were few clear cut chances, although as Ryde pushed forward for an equaliser the Rams did manage to create more chances in the gaps left behind.

After 13 minutes the Rams had the first real chance, a corner not properly cleared saw Ryde block two efforts on goal, then Jeff Kelly, Ryde's best on the day, could have done better than shoot straight at John Crawley after breaking clear on the left hand side.

After 34 minutes sould have been the first goal. A break down the right hand side saw the ball pulled back for newcomer Michael Brooks, who should have done better than shooting weakly into Les Bihari in Ryde's goal.

Brooks nearly made amends two minutes later though, when he showed his class with a scissors kick that flew just over.

An even first half saw neither team able to dominate, although no one could fault the commitment of either sets of players, with both teams keen to put their foot in and win the ball.

The goal for Macarthur saw the game open slightly, and just four minutes after that a long throw by Ryde wasn't cleared properly. Aydin Cetinay cracked a shot in that smacked against the post, with the slighest touch from Crawley's fingers maybe saving the Rams.

A header from substitute Trevor Whiddett saw a brilliant reaction save from Bihari late in the game, while with just two minutes to go the Rams had the ball in the net but the referee's assistant had just ruled an offside.

Ryde's Coach Les De Celis said afterwards that he thought both teams had been evenly matched and he was pleased with the commitment from his team. He thought his team still looked like struggling to score, but said that Adam Peatey, playing his first game as a striker, had played well and ran all day.

Its another three points for Macarthur, and while its getting to the stage of the season that that's all that counts, one suspects they will need to pick up on their performance to keep challenging the top two.

Bonnyrigg White Eagles 4 Eastern Suburbs 0

Bonnyrigg bounced back to form after being beaten last week by Parramatta Eagles, and at the same time inflicted Eastern Suburbs to their second four goal drubbing in five days.

Johnny Ghisso opened the scoring for the White Eagles with a low drive on 13 minutes, although young Eastern Suburbs goalkeeper Con Anastasiadis will be disappointed the ball slipped past him.

A minute later Colin Luff, the leading scorer in Super League, should have made it 2-0 but fired wide from close range.

Ghisso tried to repeat his goalscoring act on 20 minutes, but this time his drive was tipped around the post. The relief for the Wanderers was only temporary though, as from the resulting corner Robert Gomez curled the ball directly into the net.

George Maglis was among Eastern Suburbs best on the day, and he had two chances just before half time to get a goal back. Firstly, on 37 minutes he hit the post from the left hand side of the penalty area, then just before half time shot wide from close range.

On the stroke of half time Bonnyrigg's Paul Richardson smacked a free kick against the crossbar, leaving the scoreline 2-0 to Bonnyrigg.

An uneventful start to the second half soon changed when after 67 minutes, Paul Dee shot narrowly over from the half-way line. Anastasiadis' clearance from way outside his own penalty area saw the ball fall to Dee, whose shot towards an empty goal could so easily have gone in.

Milan Crnokrak made it 3-0 after 71 minutes following some more good work by Robert Gomez, who had a 'goal' disallowed just a minute later for offside.

Dee made up for his earlier disappointment in the last minute, rattling the ball home from outside the penalty area to make it 4-0 to the home side.

Leichhardt Tigers 4 Sutherland Sharks 1

Stuart Veitch was at Lambert Park

With a bouyant Leichhardt Tigers fielding an unchanged team after last week's vital win at Macarthur, and Sutherlands meager playing resources stretched yet further with five players missing from last weeks starting line-up against league leaders Blacktown, it seemed that the Tigers would have little trouble collecting all the points in the encounter with the Sutherland Sharks at Lambert Park.

While Leichhardt finished easy winners, it was an unimpressive display from a team which still fancies itself as title contenders. There were portents of a Sharks upset in the first fifteen minutes of this scrappy affair, with Sutherland's early aggression and commitment unsettling the Leichhardt midfield and defence.

Sharks defenders Pillay and Tedesco were first to the ball and full of running and vigour, while Markopoulous was everywhere in the middle of the park.

Leichhardt were given their first warning at 8 minutes when Hobbs and Corbo combined well with a perfectly executed one-two which split open a flat and poorly positioned Leichhardt defence and put Hobbs through with only Mikuletic to beat. To the disbelief of the away fans, Hobbs, with too much time to ponder his options, blasted his shot wide and high. In the 13th minute, Sutherlands persistance was rewarded when a deflection from a corner found its way to newcomer Dejan Ristovski at the far post, and his looping header found its way through keeper Mikuletic and several Leichhardt defenders to barely cross the goalline, for Sutherland to take a well deserved lead. Hobbs was created with the goal after presumably getting the final touch.

After fifteen minutes, the Tigers began to settle and assert their authority. With both Leichhardt strikers shooting wide after finding the room to create a scoring opportunity, it seemed only a matter of time before the equaliser would come. However, it would leave Sharks coach John Lavin bitterly disappointed that the 25th minute equaliser should be conceded so cheaply, when defender Matthew Richardson with plenty of time, stumbled on the ball to let Karavatakis in for the easiest of goals. Eight minutes later, a difficult inswinging Leichhardt corner exposed a lack of communication in the Sharks defence, with Dennis Olla unable to hold the ball thanks to some unwanted competition from his teammates, and Bazdaric converted a sharp opportunity to put the ball into the back of the Sharks net.

Things went from bad to worse for the Sharks in the second half, with the Tigers attack getting behind an increasing dispirited Sharks defence at will. After 53 minutes an Hristodoulou through ball found Karavatakis, whose shot was blocked by Olla, only to see Lansdown put the rebound away for Leichhardt's third.

John Lavin was forced to replace Sharks defender Dejan Ritovski soon after, bringing on youngster Karanosis and moving injured playmaker Markopoulous into defence. It was not long before disaster again struck the Sharks, as goalkeeper Dennis Olla was forced from the field for the second successive week after injuring his knee upon landing, after a spectacular save from a Boudaher free kick.

Craig Hobbs may have pulled one back for the Sharks in the 63rd minute, when his fierce long range shot cannoned off the upright, but as the game progressed the Tigers superiority in all positions began to tell. Chris Lansdown shot wide with three unmarked teammates to his left, while Hassan Kdouh should have done better with an opportunity which could have been snaffled by three Tigers attackers. Hobbs' strike was then cleared off the line by Tesoro, and seven minutes from time, Tigers substitute Josh Bulgin pouced on a loose ball to volley home from 18 yards, and complete the 4-1 rout of the visitors.

Best players were difficult to find in a game which lacked any fluency or rhythm, but for the losers Pillay, Tedesco and Markopoulous impressed at various stages, while for Leichhardt Hristodoulou was always dangerous with his accurate long passing and occasional runs forward, while Boudaher and Karavatakis were also among Leichhardt's better players. Sutherland coach John Lavin was left extremely disppointed that so many goals resulted from basic defensive errors, and rueing his squad's lack of depth. Leichhardt coach Arno Bertogna would surely be looking for some improvement if Leichhardt are to remain in top five contention, especially in the midfield, where a number of combinations have been tried with limited success in the continued absence of Fabio Macolino, who should return from injury sooner rather than later.

Bankstown City Lions 2 Parramatta Eagles 0.

Bankstown City Lions put behind a poor run of form to beat the in-form Parramatta Eagles, and once again show what a tough league this years Super League is to predict.

Two goals by Bankstown's Mendo Lozevski sealed the three points for the Lions, with the forward scoring after 6 minutes and 82 minutes.

Parramatta Eagles fought back after conceding the first goal, but the Lions' Keeper Zlatko Josevski saved well after 7 minutes, while two minutes later Bankstown's Tony Josevski shot over the bar. Once agin the Eagles came back but were unable to bury the ball. After 15 minutes came an excellent save by John Holmes from Mark

Abi-Arrage, then Holmes denied Alex Trposki after 19 minutes.

Holmes was called into action once agin on 26 minutes, after a good pass by Robert Issa to Stewart Van Bentum. The Eagles hit back late in the half, but were denied once more by Josevski after 35 minutes then just ten minutes later, as both goalkeepers continued to excel.

Parramatta unveiled new signing from Newcastle Breakers Tom Haythornthwaite, who came on as a substitote for the last few minutes of the game.

Eagles Coach Roberto Viera was disappointed with his teams performance, saying that after last weeks great effort this week his team didn't show the same commitment.

"Too many players turned up thinking they just needed to put their socks, shorts and tops on and we would collect three points...but all credit to Bankstown, they deserved to win.

"Some of the players are saying to me, 'well at least we have next week', they don't understand that if they don't perform there might not be a next week. We have plenty of young players who are wanting to take their places."

Viera was also disappointed that his team had missed a golden chance to remain in touch with the leaders at the top of the table.

Central Coast 1 Blacktown City Demons 1

The Central Coast made it four points from six from Blacktown, as the Demons once again struggled to put away lowly-placed opposition. Much credit goes to the Coasties though, who not only picked up their second draw in two outings after seven consecutive loses, but also game back from an early goal to grab their point.

Just three minutes in Damien Smith smacked a pile-driver from close range that Steve Angelov in the Coasties goal could only parry, and Jason Bennett knocked in his eighth goal of the season with a close range tap-in.

Peter Preston fired a shot from the edge of the penalty area just wide, but it was Blacktown who dominated the first 25 minutes, Angelov good enough to deny Damien Brown, the former Coasties player, as well as Bennett and Smith.

The Coasties got more into the game as the half wore on and Stuart Sontag forced Fernando Greco into a good save, and Nathan Byrn, Preston and Clint Smith also saw shots turned away.

As the Coasties looked to get an equaliser before half time Damien Smith broke away but was once again denied by Angelov, who deflected Smith's drive onto the post.

The Coasties started the second half well, and Byrn hit the side netting and saw Greco pull off a superb save.

On 74 minutes came the Coasties goal. Dave Maltby notched his first goal in Super League - and made sure it was a cracker. From 35 metres out Maltby spotted Greco off his line, and with a looping volley knocked the ball over the goalkeepers head and into the goal.

With six minutes to go the game took on a sad note when Coasties defender Marcus Steele was taken to hospital with a hip injury. The last five minutes saw Blacktwon force three corners, and Byrn have a shot from 10 metres out straight at Greco.

A pulsating second half saw both teams' pick up a deserved point - a point probably appreciated more by the Central Coast than Blacktown.

Canterbury Marrickville 3 Fairfield Bulls 1

The days other game saw the Berries take on the Bulls at Henson Park, with the home side coming away 3-1 winners.

Canterbury Marrickville's form has been a bit up and down this season, while the Bulls have lost a couple after their extraordinary start to the season. Such is there progress that this result was seen in some quarters as a bit of a surprise.

The Berries Nick Bosevski was the game-breaker for Canterbury Marrickville, knocking in his fifth and sixth goals of the season after 22 and 46 minutes.

The Bulls got a later goal through Mark Hoenselaars in the last minute of the game, but any hope of an equaliser evaporated when Steve Christoforoidis, who seems to specialise in late goals, scored the Berries third in injury time.

The table makes interesting reading after this one as the Berries are now just one point behind Fairfield and Leicchardt. Those writing them off, myself included, are now starting to sit up, as with one of the best defences in Super League plus the knack to pick up late goals, the Berries will certainly have a big say on the outcome of this years competition.

The Bulls, as alreday indicated, have been superb to date, and their attacking brand of football sees them with 29 goals in just 15 games. They face a difficult task against Parramatta Eagles at Melita Stadium next week and a loss there could see them start to slip down the table.

Australian Soccer the Big Picture

Guest Column

by Basil Scarsella

In the first of a regular series of guest articles, SUPER SOCCER invited Soccer Australia Chairman Basil Scarsella to talk to us. A number of top flight players, coaches and administrators have also agreed to provide SUPER SOCCER with their thoughts on all things soccer, so look out in future issues for their expert comments!

As Chairman of Soccer Australia, I would like to thank Super Soccer and its readers for the opportunity to talk about the game that is a substantial part of my life.

When Super Soccer initially approached me for a comment, the content of my piece was up to me, but two words in the approach fax stood out, and I felt this was the right place and right time to address those words - BIG PICTURE.

We have plenty of opportunity to look at the big picture when it comes to the round ball game in this country, because from where I look at it, the picture just gets bigger and bigger.

Right here, right now. The Ericsson Cup. Top 6. Record Crowds. As it stands at the time of writing, Northern Spirit has created another new record with not only the biggest crowd for an elimination final, but the biggest crowd in a finals series, excluding the grand final. That's in a very well documented year one of existence, and is a clear indication of where Australian soccer is heading.

Another major player in that direction is Perth Glory, who at time of writing, is preparing to take on the team in my backyard, Adelaide City - Glory's involvement in the Finals Series for the first time in a short 3 year history, is another feather in the West's cap.

And to put further prestige on the Top 6 comes news of the World Club Championship, where our grand final winner will have the opportunity to take on the likes of a Manchester United, a Bayern Munich or a River Plate, when the best Clubs in the World meet next January.

Move to the future by 6 weeks; the date is June 12 and more records are set to tumble, as Australian soccer showcases itself once again around both the country and the world, when the Socceroos take on the World XI Select at the official opening of Stadium Australia.

There has been much made of this game, particularly when it comes to speculation on players from both sides.

Raul Blanco named his squad last week, and I think it's one of the strongest squads assembled to play for the Socceroos - once again the likes of Bosnich, Okon, Zelic and Kewell are back in the green and gold, and it's good to see them there.

On the other side of the field, we are presented with 32 world class players who could be gracing these shores and frankly, these are players the likes of which we have never seen before in this country.

No, I don't have any inside information, but, as a fan of soccer, I do have some thoughts. Imagine a potential strike force of Christian Vieri and Gabriel Batistuta ... imagine perhaps Ryan Giggs down one wing and David Beckham down another ... imagine a midfield of AC Milan team-mates George Weah and Leonardo ... or maybe Alessandro Del Piero in the midfield with ...

The scenarios are endless - but the list of prospective players is mouth watering, not only to you and me, but also to the very important marketing tool which is the media. Already the media has taken a more than active interest in both this game, and the next blockbusters after this when Manchester United takes on Australia over two legs in July followed by the Socceroos taking on the mighty Brazil in November.

All this without even mentioning that other Big Picture - the Olyroos & the 2000 Olympics.

Australian soccer is not about to be put on the map - it is on the map. Over the next few months, we will celebrate our local talent and National League, our overseas superstars and our national team, all the while continuing to prepare our future champions for what will be one of the biggest sporting events held in this country - the 2000 Olympics.

The Big Picture is certainly that - and a whole lot more - it's here, it's now, it's tomorrow and the day after - and I look forward to sharing it with each and every one of you in the future.

BASIL SCARSELLA

SUPER SOCCER SHORTS

Oceania qualifying tournament:
Interesting to note that while 6 of the 20 players selected for the Joey's squad are from the New South Wales Institute of Sport team, Coach Les Scheinflug had 4 of those players involved in the first match against hosts Fiji. The four were Shane Cansdell-Sherriff, Mark Byrnes (who is also the captain), Shane Lockhart and Dylan MacAllister. The Joeys followed up their first game win over Fiji with two huge wins.
8-0 over Papua New Guinea and 15-0 over the Cook Islands. Those three wins mean the Joeys are well on their way to be in the final of the tournament, which is to be played on Friday May 14.

As mentioned in last week's Super Soccer Shorts, a number of NSL players could well be gracing the New South Wales Soccer Federation's leagues very shortly. St George has signed Leo Carle and is also rumoured to be keen on ex-Middlesborough and Ipswich stalwart Mark Brennan.

Sports Sponsorship

A recently released survey from Sweeney Sports, a market research company, shows that sponsors of sport and sporting events have had a mixed year.

Looking at the higher profile, national or international level competitions in Australia, the research shows that, of the 27 most-recalled sponsors, only Ansett, the Commonwealth Bank, Telstra and Kelloggs recorded gains in recollection levels. However, the most recognised sponsor of any sport is Uncle Tobys which is comfortably ahead of the next most recognised sponsor, Ford. The individual sportsperson considered most worthy of sponsorship support is the Olympic and World champion wheelchair athlete, Louise Sauvage: no Australian footballer rates in the top 20 list of sportspersons considered worthy of sponsorship.

Experts agree that these results tend to reinforce the view that exclusive, long-held sponsorship of a sport linked with television coverage and other activity leads to sponsorship success.

These results come hot on the heels of Australian Bureau of Statistics data which show that Australians are spending less time (and money) at sporting events and more time on other leisure and entertainment options, including the Internet. While Australians still have a very strong interest in sport, overall interest appears to be declining. In the past few years, a smaller proportion of people have been playing sport, attending sporting events, watching them on television and listening to them on radio, while more people are participating in, and attending, arts and cultural activities.

Nonetheless, people are also willing to pay high prices for sporting events which they consider to be of intrinsic value and a 'not-to-be-missed' event.

A recent article in The Sydney Morning Herald by Anthony Dennis shows that ticket prices to the forthcoming Socceroos V. FIFA All Stars game on 12 June, and Socceroos V. Manchester United game on 18 July, are significantly greater than other sporting events (eg. rugby union tests) and not very different from the Bee Gees concert. The promoters of the Socceroos V. All Stars game, Melbourne's Left Field Solutions, also said during the week that there are only 20,000 tickets left to the game at the new Olympic stadium (Stadium Australia).

The fact that football can set such a high price is proof of the appeal of that particular fixture: it doesn't have a flow-on effect to the national and then State leagues.

Those of us who follow the world game closely in Australia know already that it's hard enough to identify and retain good sponsorship for the national teams, national competition and the individual NSL clubs. What then, for a State-based competition, such as the Super League, or the other competitions of the NSW Soccer Federation?

Obviously, this is an issue which exercises the collective minds of Super League, and other, clubs and the NSW Federation Board.

While football in Australia has historically benefited from small and medium business owners who have a love for the game and are willing to support it, the cost and reality of running a Club or a competition today demand a much more hard-nosed, hard-edge commercial business objective. Sponsors ask "What's in it for me?"

A sponsor is usually purchasing two things by providing a sponsorship:

? first, they want to the right to target and communicate with certain consumers; and

? second, they want the right to use positive images affiliated with the sport (or the individual sportsperson) for their commercial benefit.

While there may still be 'fairy godmother' type sponsors around, they are fewer and further between.

With sponsorship as a proportion of organisations' promotional budgets declining over the past half-decade worldwide, and with the added competition in Australia from the arts and cultural sector - not to mention the Olympics - for these scarcer sponsorship dollars, it is important for our sport and our competition to show ourselves in the best possible light.

Sponsors take notice of things such as:

? how the competition is run
? the responsiveness and presentation of the Federation and clubs
? what type of communications mechanisms are in place - such as Super Soccer and the www.soccernsw.com.au web site
? participation and attendance rates
? the media coverage we receive from all sources
? the behaviour and attitude of players, officials and fans
? whether there are other opportunities to participate in, or contribute to the sport.

Over the next little while, we'll be working to put the blocks in place to create, build or re-shape the various activities and strategies to strengthen our claim to attention within the corporate world in this area.

If you've got any suggestions or ideas you'd like to discuss, please do not hesitate to contact me on 9629 1800 (Tuesday and Thursday) or e-mail me on bon@webcity.com.au

Leslie Pogliacomi has re-joined Moorebank, and Canterbury Marrickville had been negotiating with Chris Kalantzis, but were disappointed with the money being requested by Sydney Olympic. However, the Berries look to have a more than adequate replacement with the Fijian Esala Masi, who has proved a hit at the Wolves in the NSL.

Macarthur Rams have signed another Wolves player - Michael Brooks. Brooks should add firepower to the Rams in the run-in to the season, while Dulwich Hill is hopefully of singing the Canberra Cosmos' Ivo de Jesus.

Stewart Porter has taken over as coach of Sutherland's Under 21's after Walter Alvarez left for England. Stewart is now in charge of both the Under 18's and Under 21's and is still training with first grade. He is set to play in an up coming Under 21 match as part of his 'comeback'.

Ryde City have lost two of their players - Craig Moffit has left the club by mutual consent while it is expected that Scott Ollerenshaw may have finally succumbed to his long-term injury.

Is your club interested in seeing the Socceroos and FIFA All-Stars game on June 12? For more information see page 31.

1999 SEASON

NSW FIRST DIVISION REVIEW

ROUND TEN SUMMARY

Midweek action saw Penrith edge out Moorebank by the slenderest of margins, a 1-0 win achieved in the last few minutes of a game that had been played at a great level of intensity.

The winner came after a Steve Sweeney corner had been pushed away by the keeper Les Pogliacomi, who was making his Moorebank debut, but Sweeney crossed the ball back in once more and this time Chris Ackerley got in his header before a defender could clear the ball at the far post and it was curtains for Moorebank.

In the game at Abruzzi Oval on Saturday visiting St George, who had not played for a fortnight, shook off the cobwebs and gradually got on top of a workmanlike A C United to win 3-0.

New signing Leo Carle, signed on a full contract from Sydney Olympic, made a sound debut and scored one of the goals with a well timed run through a gap to go on and beat the keeper with a cool finish in the 81st minute a fter St George had clung tenaciously to a slender lead from the 40th minute with a goal provided by Louis Dounis.

Carle netted in the 66th after a well weighted through pass from Marc Santarossa, but his finish showed a maturity beyond his years.

On the other hand Dounis showed his years of experience in scoring the first goal for the Saints.

Gordon Sutherland had been doing a great deal of good work on the left and in yet another sortie he was able to get to the byline and deliver a low cross for Dounis, who had time to steady and pick his spot from 6 yards out near the far post.

A similar cross earlier in the game had been driven wide by Tim Preston and it was a similar story in the second half with David O'Han latching onto another Sutherland cross and seeing his well hit volley tipped over by debut keeper Daniel Vicano in the 49th.

St George needed those extra goals to ease their concerns about an AC team that threatened danger on many occasions, but the good goalkeeping of Trinity Allen and well organised defence restricted the home side mainly to shots from outside the area.

Jack Depizio did stretch Allen from a rare close range shot after a low ball had been played across the face of the goal by Fabio Screpis.

Stefan Janic went on to score the third in the 87th by outfoxing the defence as he lurked out wide on the half way line, unmarked, to race onto a long ball and angle the ball past the keeper.

In the other game of the day, played at Illawarra's Ian McLennan Park, the local Lions beat Auburn United 3-1, in front of a large and vocal crowd.

Three were sent off, two of those from the visitors, in a fiery encounter, but stylish goals from Rick Giometti, John Tratselas and Jim Melissourgos gave the home team the edge before Alan Gordon could pull one back from the penalty spot.

Leaders Manly-Warringah went crazy at Cromer Park, hitting eight goals past an outclassed Stanmore Hawks.

The Dolphins began like a bullet-train and the speedy Damien Rosenthal soon had them a goal up after a great run into the box , leaving two defenders in his wake, before slotting the ball past Paul Kyprianou from a tight angle in the 2nd minute.

Only five minutes later striking partner Dean Harding showed a clean pair of heels to the defence and made it 2-0 with a low finish from 8 yards.

A long ball out of defence by Danny Barbalace sent Rosenthal away on another powerful run which ended with a cross to the 12 yard mark where Harding arrived in time to drive the ball past the keeper for the third.

In a rare opportunity for the visitors a long clearance saw the alert Peter Kypreos reach the ball before the Dolphins' keeper to head in the high bouncing ball in the 29th minute.

Stanmore had their best period after this encouragement, but a free kick from Tom Mikulski in the 26th allowed Rosenthal to back head the ball in for the Dolphins' fourth goal and only a minute later Harding made another run which led to a cross for Mikulski to steer the ball past the keeper from close range.

Stanmore lost Soc Bakafoukas to a red card after a challenge on Matt Bastian in the 68th. Moments later Harding brought up his hat trick when he volleyed in a ball cut back by Rosenthal from a range of just 8 yards.

Substitute Mat Goodwin then got in on the act to add by hammering home a Mikulski cross from the byline in the 82nd and then beating a sluggish offside ploy to go on and round the keeper for number eight in the last minute.

Clearly a comprehensive win by the unbeaten league leaders who looked by far the fitter side on the day, despite the long lay-off.

Dulwich Hill, awaiting the arrival of two new players and the return of an old favourite, Alex dos Santos, were reasonably satisfied with their 2-2 draw against the lively Rockdale City Suns at Arlington Oval.

Goce Trposki was able to turn smartly inside the area to get onto a ball played in from the right in the 20th minute and shoot past Peter Trajcevski for the opening goal of the game.

Fifteen minutes later a good build up by Dulwich saw Vlado Mickovski receive the ball wide on the edge of the area and his angle finish beat Mark Afif for the equaliser.

Mickovski was the provider in the dying stages of the first half, his cross was nodded down by Ivo de Oliveira to the feet of that player who was able to pivot and drill the ball left footed past Afif for a handy half time lead.

Stanmore had their best period after this encouragement, but a free kick from Tom Mikulski in the 26th allowed Rosenthal to back head the ball in for the Dolphins' fourth goal and only a minute later Harding made another run which led to a cross for Mikulski to steer the ball past the keeper from close range.

Rockdale drew level in the 55th when Spase Najdoski dribbled past a throng of defenders and after his initial shot had been saved by the keeper and the ball scrambled away, Sean Robertson was able to latch onto the loose ball and fire it into the net.

It was a tight contest for the remainder of the game, though Dulwich did feel that they had good claims for a penalty when Phil Cacciola came down in the box with ten minutes still to play.

Overall the two sides would have been happy with the result based on their performances in this game.

In the game at Hurstville Oval Hurstville City Minotaurs proved that there really are bogey sides in this game of ours by going down 0-1 at home to hitherto winless Moorebank Sports.

Last year Moorebank did the double over the Hurstville side, including a 3-1 win away from home, so they were in the right frame of mind to continue their recent improvement on this occasion.

With the Hurstville team being nowhere near as strong as last year's outfit it should have been no surprise that Moorebank could cause the upset, winning with a 71st minute winner from Sacha Djuric.

A hotly disputed Bathurst penalty, put away in a lengthy period of stoppage time, by Scott Mutton, denied the Penrith Panthers a win at Cook Park, after Tim O'Connell had given them a 59th minute lead from a header from a Chris Ackerley cross. Penrith claimed that they should have had a penalty of their own in the first half when they felt Mark Rooke had handled a ball sent over from a corner by Ackerley, but referee Larry Bittman would have none of it.

For Penrith Richard Astone was outstanding and there were also strong games from Tim O'Connell and Jon Grima, while Bathurst were well served by Tony Clancy, Scott Mutton and the industrious Mark Rooke.

ROUND ELEVEN PREVIEW

There are two Saturday games this weekend, one in Bathurst and one in Sydney at Mona Park.

St George may be able to really stretch Penrith at the ground next door, but they will need to watch out as the Panthers are pretty quick and lively and will run all day. It looks sure to be a game of tight defence and the well-documented inability of the Saints to score at home makes that draw look a real probability.

Bathurst will have a tough one against Hurstville City Minotaurs who are a strong side but who are also lacking consistency just now. They will go close to beating the bush boys, however.

Auburn, on the other hand, should be within the reach of the visiting Manly Warringah side who have yet to be beaten. Both teams are quick, but the defence of Manly is more solid and with the form they showed last weekend, who can stop them?

The all-Macedonian derby at the Ilinden Soccer Centre on Sunday should be a cracker, with Illawarra favoured to continue their recent strong form in the big smoke against Illawarra Lions whose recent trips to town have been very rewarding, winning on each of their four visits to the metropolis.

St George may be able to really stretch Penrith at the ground next door, but they will need to watch out as the Panthers are pretty quick and lively and will run all day. It looks sure to be a game of tight defence and the well-documented inability of the Saints to score at home makes that draw look a real probability.

Stanmore Hawks have A C United to contend with at Arlington Oval and should bear in mind that the plucky side from Wetherill Park already have a win on the ground to their credit, a last ditch effort against Dulwich Hill, so will relish the prospect of making it a double. They will also be anxious to get some form again after a spate of injuries and suspensions.

Talking of Dulwich Hill they are on the road this week and face Moorebank who are steadily finding their best form, but both sides are hoping to improve on early efforts so it is going to be a very hard game to pick.

Maybe a draw would satisfy both camps.

ROUND NINE SUMMARY

LEADING CONTENDERS ALL WIN AND UNI OF NSW BREAK THROUGH AT LAST

A midweek catch up game saw Hills United and Hurstville ZSC engaged at Valentine Park and when Hills raced to a 2-0 lead it looked good for the side from Castle Hill. But in a twenty minute spell in the opening period of the second half Hurstville blitzed their opponents to run out 6-3 winners. Robert Babaic had a hand in two of the goals and provided the cross for the opener by newcomer Ivan Maric. Then an Ante Majestic cross set up Steve Zoric for the first of his four in a row, one from the penalty spot. Mario Mrkic grabbed the other goal, Hills hitting back late for a third of their own from Francois Finianos.

Hills had been looking particularly sharp with Tim Gledhill and latest signing Shane Coombes firing them into a handy lead, but they didn't score again until it was already 5-2 and though Finianos gave them a slim hope, Ashley Mathieson could not put away a chance soon after and Hurstville was then able to score their sixth to run out comfortable winners.

Saturday saw both University teams in action. Sydney University beat Mount Druitt 4-3 and thus leapt above the western suburbs side to move into a share of the lead, albeit overnight.

Uni took the lead in the 6th minute after David Gill had turned on a sixpence and driven hard at the keeper, who could only push the ball over his line. Then in the 12th Graham Bonanno provided a cross from the left which Leigh Cross headed in to put Mount Druitt level.

In the 18th Mount Druitt failed to clear a through ball and Chris Bowman pounced, to restore the lead, while in the 34th a free kick from the edge of the box was curled around the wall by the same player into the top left corner.

Then in the 45th Ben Nicholas pulled one back when his free kick deflected off the wall and in off the post, before Jon Van Waard shocked the students with a 56th minute equaliser. Donny Brown was then pushed forward from sweeper for Uni and almost immediately was well placed to thread the ball through for Rob Smithies to wrap it up in the closing stages.

University of NSW beat Sydney District 2-1 at Camdenville Oval to lift themselves off the bottom of the ladder.

In a match that was always going to be extremely close, with both teams chasing their first win, attack was always going to be the likely tactic.

University began well for their fourth match in a row and were unlucky not to go oneup when a low shot from skipper Nestor Moreno was well saved by District 'keeper Robert Mustapic.

In an effort to increase penetration, the students had striker Jonathan Dmoch, who had scored in each of the last three matches, partnered with Moreno and the move looked like paying dividends as they created several chances in the first twenty minutes.

District did not panic, though, and before long they hit the woodwork through Javier Gelos and brought out a top save from new Uni goalkeeper Nick Apoifis, recently signed from Stanmore, who did very well to get a hand on a powerful strike from Jeff Fonseca.

Just when it looked like being a scoreless half, the students were delivered a blow when a penalty was awarded in the 44th minute to the home side for a push inside the box on Refojos.

Uni protested vigorously, but Malcolm Dominguez calmly despatched the spot kick and the home side held a handy half time advantage.

The second half by contrast began better for the home side. No nonsense defence and several flowing moves saw no fewer than four real chances go begging for District.

Frustration crept in and the students had several players booked for late challenges and dissent. They kept working, however, and created a couple of real chances themselves. Most notable was a hard drive from Nick Kodomikalos which was parried by Mustapic and was cleared to safety by the District defence.

Finally, in the 83rd minute, the equaliser came. A short cross was challenged for by Kodomikalos and Mustapic, and won by the young right half. He cut the ball back to Dax Bykerk who shot through a crowd of several players to level the scores.

The students began playing with more confidence after this and finally, in the88th minute, a Dmoch shot was well saved by Mustapic, but the ball fell inthe path of Moreno who from eight yards made no mistake.

District appealed unsuccessfully for offside on this occasion, but were clearly unlucky on the day as they were to hit the post twice more.

Celebrations among the students were loud, but several minutes of stoppage time meant that Sydney District could still push forward and in this period Montenari hit the post with a thundering twenty yard drive and Apoifis was again called upon to made two more crucial saves, but when the final whistle was blown, it was the students who had lifted themselves off the bottom.

Hajduk Wanderers welcomed back Jim Boudaher from injury and the former Ryde City striker celebrated with a hat trick in the side's 5-0 demolition of Belmore Hercules at Hajduk Stadium.

Damien Brown opened the scoring in the 14th minute, with Boudaher getting his first from a screamer from long range in the 28th and completed his haul before half time. Hajduk lost Trent Holmes to a red card at the end of the first half and Belmore came into the game well enough to earn a penalty due to their numerical advantage, but their keeper, Elias Tritsaris', attempt from the spot was well saved by Darren Cross to keep them scoreless.

Two Belmore players were also sent off as well as Tony Krslovic for Hajduk in a game that became spiteful towards the end, but Hajduk was able to add one more goal from Brown in the last minute.

Co-leaders Fraser Park enjoyed near total domination over Hills United at Fred Caterson Reserve, but a scintillating display of goalkeeping by Abdul Alamedine restricted them to a 2-0 win, though the woodwork also played its part.

Fraser threatened often in the first half but after numerous orthodox attempts on goal saw the ball cleared to safety it took a near post glancing header by John Palapanis, from a Sean Strang corner on the left in the 40th minute, to eventually get them off the mark.

It was another near post header, this time more firmly struck by Matthew Zec from another Strang corner on the left in the 70th that completed the scoring.

Apart from a brilliant save by Luke McGuire from a superb volley by Francois Finianos in the 50th minute, the game was punctuated by a constant stream of corners conceded by Hills, largely due to the efforts of their keeper in turning shots and headers wide or over the bar. He won't get any better practice than this from a team of hot shots that threw everything at him all afternoon.

Greystanes had the ball in the net four times against Mount Pritchard at Bathurst Street Park, but only one counted in their 1-1 draw, both goals coming in the second half.

Andrew Cauchi broke quickly in the 70th minute to beat the keeper with a close range finish, while two minutes later Ian Stoddart found the top corner for the Mounties, with a 30 yard free kick, to put the teams level once more.

Arncliffe and Hurstville staged a 2-2 draw at Scots Field, Zlatko Nastevski nullifying Robert Babaic's 24th minute goal for Hurstville just two minutes later. Though Mike Grbevski put Arncliffe ahead, this time it was the visitors who pulled level again, Ante Buntic finding the net in the 85th.

SUPER YOUTH LEAGUE

Round 12 review

G13's

Blacktown City Demons continued their seemingly unstoppable march to the league title with a 3-0 win over the Parramatta Eagles. The Demons now have a massive 7 point gap after 12 rounds, a gap made bigger after the clash of second versus third.

Newcastle Breakers were in second going into the game with Wollongong Wolves third, and in an ideal result for Blacktown the Wolves won 2-0, meaning both teams now have 24 points.

Southern Districts moved up to fourth after their 3-0 win at the Central Coast, because with Parramatta losing and Leichhardt Tigers drawing 1-1 at Sutherland both teams slipped down a place.

Sydney Olympic are in seventh after their 4-1 defeat of Sydney United, and Marconi Fairfield are next after their 1-0 win at home to Eastern Suburbs.

With the Manly Warringah Dolphins - Gladesville Hornsby Association game being washed out, the days other game saw Southern Branch move up the table with a 1-0 win over the Macarthur Rams.

G14's

The leadership of the Grade 14's changed hands once again, as this time Southern Districts sit proudly at the top of the table. They defeated the Central Coast 3-1, while previous leaders lost 2-0 at Newcastle Breakers.

Sydney United also leap-frogged the Wolves despite only drawing 1-1 at Sydney Olympic, who are now fourth themselves behind the Wolves.

Next are Marconi Fairfield who thumped Eastern Suburbs 5-0, while Sutherland Sharks are sixth after beating Leichhardt Tigers 2-0 at Bates Drive.

Manly Warringah's game against Gladesville Hornsby unfortunately fell foul of the weather, while there were 1-0 wins for Blacktown City over Parramatta Eagles and Southern Branch over the Macarthur Rams.

G15's

Blacktown City Demons remain top of the table after their 4-1 defeat of the Parramatta Eagles, and like the Grade 13's have a nice lead at the top.

Marconi Fairfield moved into second despite only picking up a point in a 0-0 draw at home to Eastern Suburbs, but the Gladesville Hornsby Association have a game in hand after being forced to sit out the day with their game at Manly Warringah being washed out.

Southern Districts continued their good start to the season with a 3-0 win at the Central Coast, and the Sutherland Sharks are in fifth after beating Leichhardt Tigers 3-2.

Macarthur Rams ensured that the Southern Branch were unable to collect their first win, the Rams winning 1-0, while Wollongong went to Newcastle and won by the same score.

The days other game saw Sydney Olympic and Sydney United draw 1-1 at Potts Park.

Grade 16's

Leaders Newcastle Breakers lost to Wollongong Wolves 3-1 at Northlakes Oval, which enabled Sydney Olympic and the Leichhardt Tigers to go above them.

Olympic did this in style with a 6-0 win at home to Sydney United, while the Tigers were just as impressive in beating Sutherland Sharks 2-0 away from home.

Blacktown City Demons are next after their 0-0 draw at home to the Parramatta Eagles, while the Gladesville Hornsby Association beat the Central Coast 1-0 in a re-arranged match. Unfortunately they didn't catch up with their fixtures however, as their round 12 game with Manly Warringah was washed out!

Southern Branch defeated finally got through for their first win, defeating the Macarthur Rams 1-0, while the Central Coast were another team at the bottom to add to their points tally, drawing 1-1 at home to the Southern Districts.

The days other game saw Marconi Fairfield beat Eastern Suburbs 2-0.

Round 10 review

G13's

The top six all stayed the same after round 10 action, with a full round being played as well as a round 4 re-scheduled match between Bonnyrigg White Eagles and Penrith Panthers

The Illawara Lions maintained their one point lead at the top of the table, easily beating the Fairfield Bulls 7-0, but a host of clubs keep continuing to chase the leaders.

In second place are St George, who had a tight 3-2 victory over Ryde City, while it was slightly easier for third placed AC United, who beat Bonnyrigg White Eagles 3-0.

The Blacktown Association are in fourth despite only drawing 0-0 at home to Canterbury Association, and Rockdale remain fifth after beating Canterbury Marrickville 5-1.

Bankstown Association are still sixth and beat Hills United 4-2, while Penrith went down 2-1 at home to Stanmore Hawks, but did pick up a point in their re-arranged match with Bonnyrigg in a 0-0 draw.

G14's

Ryde City remain the leaders of the Grade 14's after a hard-fought 1-0 victory away at St George. The big game was though between second and third as AC United took on Bonnyrigg White Eagles. The White Eagles took the game to leap-frog AC United into second, and also claimed an extra point after drawing 2-2 with Penrith in their re-arranged match.

It proved to be a good weekend for the Panthers, as they collected three points against Stanmore Hawks with a 1-0 win. The four points collected from the weekend sees the Panthers in fourth spot.

Canterbury Marrickville are bottom of the table after a close 1-0 defeat at Rockdale, and the Fairfield Bulls moved off the bottom by defeating the Illawara Lions 2-1 for their first win of the season.

Middle of the table Bankstown Association and Hills United share the points in a 1-1 draw, while the Canterbury Association picked up its third win of the season, beating the Blacktown Association 1-0.

G15's

Leaders AC United continued the clubs good form in Division One this season with a 2-0 victory over Bonnyrigg White Eagles. Hot on their heals though are Hills United, who defeated Bankstown Association 1-0 at Neville Reserve.

Ryde City are in third after defeating St George 1-0 in another close game, while fourth placed Penrith Panthers were held to a 0-0 draw by the Stanmore Hawks. The Panthers however did also play their re-arranged match against Bonnyrigg White Eagles, going down 1-0.

At the bottom of the table Canterbury Association went down by the odd goal in a 2-1 defeat at Blacktown Association, but Canterbury Marrickville defeated Rockdale City Suns 2-1 to secure their second win in nine games.

Fairfield Bulls moved up to ten points after their game with Illawara Lions, the Bulls winning 3-2.

G16's

Blacktown Association kept up their one point lead at the top of the table with a hard-earned 3-2 victory over the Canterbury Association. Second and third respectively on 18 points are AC United and Ryde City, who kept the pressure on with away victories.

AC picked up the three points on offer in a 2-0 win at Bonnyrigg, while Ryde City did likewise at St George, winning 3-1.

There are a host of teams chasing the to three, with Bankstown Association in fourth after their 2-1 victory at home to Hills United.

Illawara Lions are in fifth after beating Fairfield Bulls 3-2, while Penrith in sixth missed out on a chance to improve their position. Although the Panthers defeated Stanmore 2-1 at home, a 1-0 defeat by Bonnyrigg in their re-arranged match sees them miss the chance to go into the top three.

The days other game saw Rockdale City Suns beat Canterbury Marrickville 2-0.

Round 7 review

G13's

The top four all stayed the same after round 7 action on the weekend.

Leaders Ku-ring-gai Association maintained their one point lead by smashing Parramatta City 8-1, while the Nepean Association and Macquarie Sports are next, both on 15 points.

Nepean Association maintained their good start to the season with a 2-0 victory over Mt Druitt Town and Macquarie Sports also collected three points, with a 2-1 victory over a gallant Moorebank Sports.

Hajduk Wanderers are fourth after disposing of CSI Schofields 4-1, and Hawkesbury City picked up their first win of the season by defeating the Granville Association 3-2.

The days other game saw Mt Pritchard move above Mt Druitt into fifth after beating the Camden Tigers 1-0.

G14's

Previous leaders Hajduk Wanderers lost only their second game of the season in going down 3-1 to CSI Schofields, and it caused them to drop from first to fourth.

The new leaders are Macquarie Sports, who thumped Moorebank Sports 8-0, while after their win CSI Schofields go second.

Into third are the Nepean Association, who defeated Mt Druitt 3-1, while Mt Pritchard ensured Camden Tigers are still without a win, the Tigers going down 1-0.

Parramatta City surprised Ku-ring-gai Association with a 1-0 win, while their was a 1-1 draw at Garside Park between the Granville Association and Hawkesbury City.

G15's

Leaders Hajduk Wanderers maintained their one point gap at the top of the table after beating CSI Schofields 6-0, but Parramatta City are keeping the pressure on, defeating the Ku-ring-gai Association 4-1.

Mt Pritchard are still in third after defeating the Camden Tigers 1-0, while the Granville Association remain bottom after going down 2-1 at home to Hawkesbury City.

Mt Druitt Town moved into mid-table after beating the Nepean Association 3-2, and Moorebank Sports picked up their first win of the season, downing Macquarie Sports 1-0 at Northlakes Oval.

G16's

It was first v second at Cook Park, St Mary's as the Nepean Association, with a 100% record, entertained Mt Druitt Town. It was Mt Druitt who prospered though 3-1, although the Nepean Association remain in first place but with just a two point gap now.

With the first place team losing the third placed team did the same - Camden Tigers going down 3-2 to Mt Pritchard. The win moved Mt Pritchard into fourth place, as Hajduk Wanderers moved into third with an 8-0 thrashing of CSI Schofields.

The Ku-ring-gai Association picked up its second win of the season with a 2-0 victory over Parramatta City, and there was a 0-0 draw between Granville Association and Hawkesbury City.

Macquarie Sports are into sixth place after beating Moorebank Sports 5-2.

Cadet League Division One

Round 8 review

G11's

Sydney United took advantage of Canterbury Marrickville's bye this week, and stretched their lead at the top of the table after disposing of the Leichhardt Tigers 3-1.

St George did likewise, moving up to second ahead of the Berries after their 3-0 win at Parramatta City sees them three points behind the league leaders.

Both St George and Canterbury Marrickville have a game in hand on Sydney United though, and if they can both win that it will mean it will be tight at the top!

Ryde City picked up their second win in six games with a 2-1 victory over Macarthur Rams, while Eastern Suburbs picked up their first win, beating Bonnyrigg White Eagles 2-1 away from home.

There was a 2-2 draw between Parramatta Eagles and Marconi Fairfield, a result which sees Marconi Fairfield move onto ten points.

G12's

Its still Sydney United at the top after their 7-0 thrashing of Leichhardt, with their lead stretching now to 6 points. The reason their lead has increased is because Parramatta Eagles drew 1-1 with Marconi Fairfield to remain in second, while St George remain in third after disposing of Parramatta City 3-0.

Macarthur Rams 6-1 thrashing of Ryde City in fact means the top four all stay as they were, with Parramatta City and Ryde City both looking for their first wins.

Cadet League Division Two

Round 10 review

G11's

With second placed Hills United having a day off, leaders Illawara Lions opened up a 5 point gap after beating Hajduk Wanderers 5-0.

Penrith Panthers moved above Hills United on goal difference after pipping Hawkesbury City 1-0, while Stanmore Hawks moved into fourth with a 2-1 defeat of Mt Pritchard.

AC United dropped a couple of spots after losing 4-3 at home to CSI Schofields, AC now winning five and losing five of their ten games.

Macquarie Sports look good in moving up to fifth, and they were the top scorers of the day, beating Mt Druitt Town 6-0. Even better for Macquarie is they have games in hand on all the other clubs.

The days other game saw Hurstville City entertain Moorebank Sports, and the hosts celebrated a 4-2 victory - their second of the season.

G12's

Leaders Hills United sat the round out with a bye, and third placed Stanmore Hawks move into top spot with a 6-0 thrashing of Mt Pritchard.

Hills United drop to second with Penrith in third, the Panthers drawing 1-1 at home to Hawkesbury City.

AC United dropped two places to fourth after losing 2-1 at home to CSI Schofields, while Illawara Lions and Hajduk Wanderers shared a 1-1 draw at Ian McLennan Oval.

Moorebank Sports picked up their first win of the season with a 5-0 victory over Hurstville City, while Macquarie Sports and Mt Druitt Town are now level on points after Macquarie sealed a 2-1 win.
